

SWERVE

CALGARY INSIDE & OUT

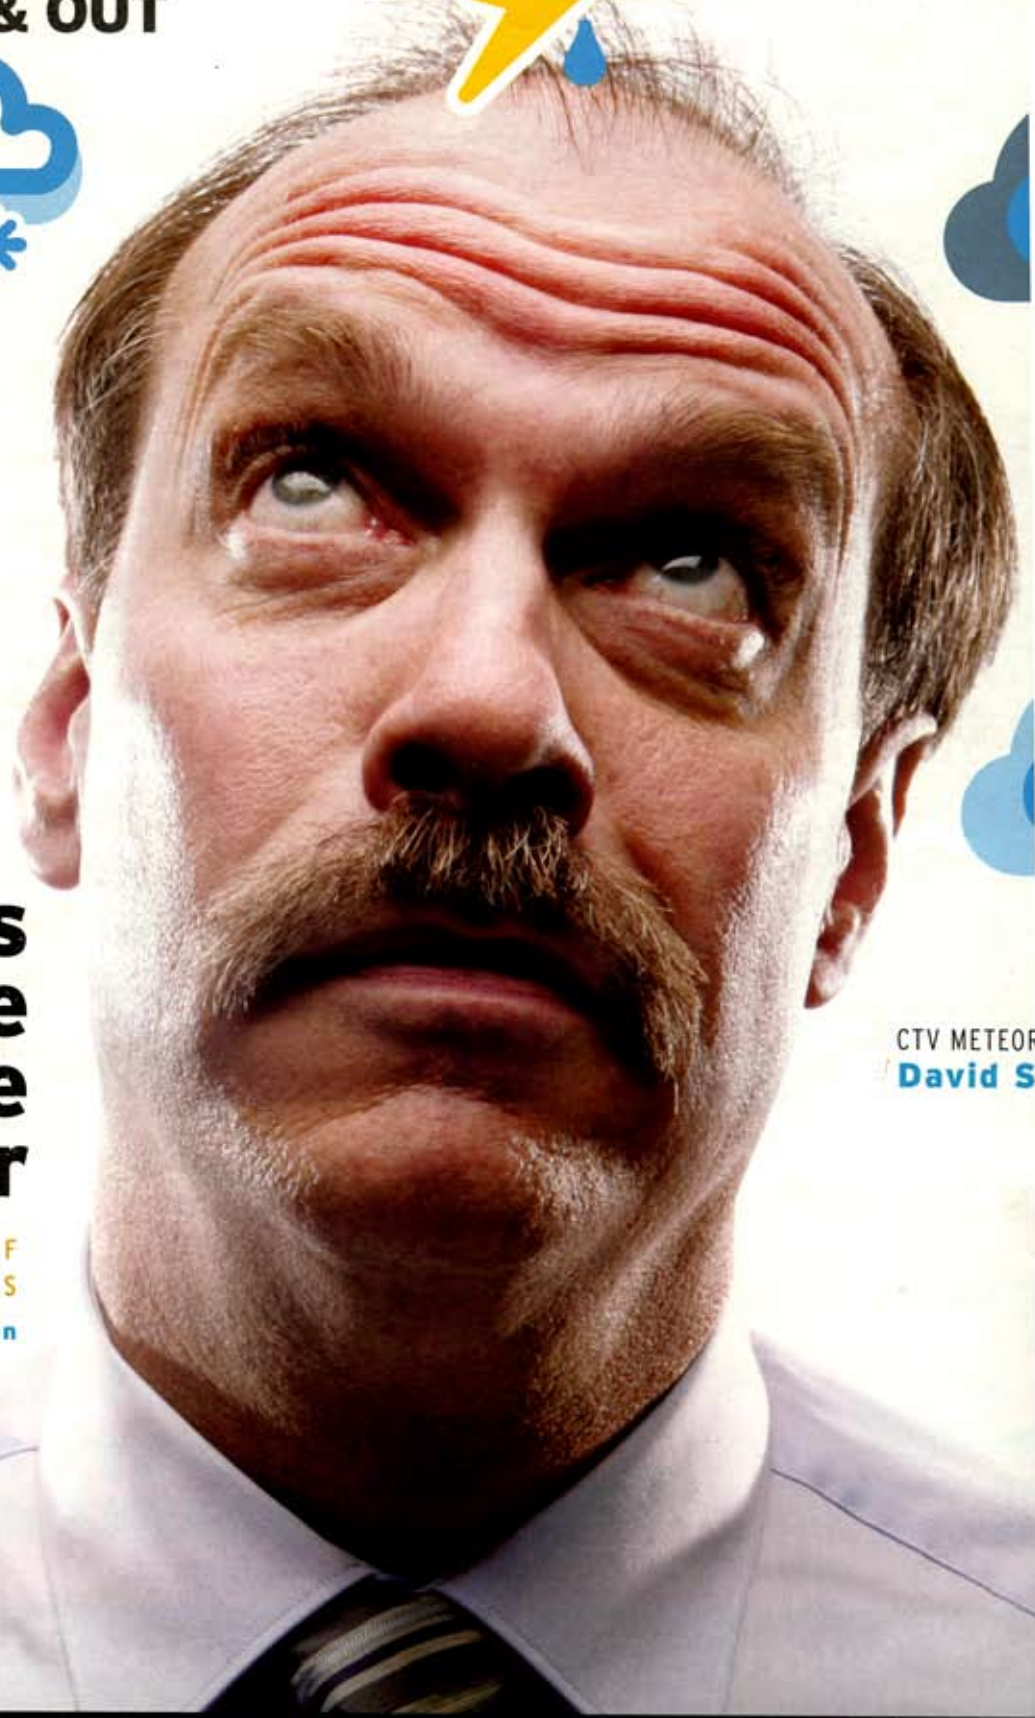

fun

the pros who wrangle our extreme weather

TAKING THE TEMPERATURES OF CALGARY'S FOREMOST FORECASTERS

photographed by Randy Gibson

CTV METEOR
David S

an easter parade of goodies

A bounty of chicks, dresses, bonnets, chocolates and cupcakes that embraces all the clichés.

by Rita Strignano • Photographed by Jason Dziewez

KNITTED GARDEN

Hive Children's Apparel re-selling designer kid's clothing by Marc Jacobs and Ed Hardy by France's Deux par Deux. A little girl to wear while eating eggs, $69. 105, 1414 Kensington Rd. N.W., 403-270-2728

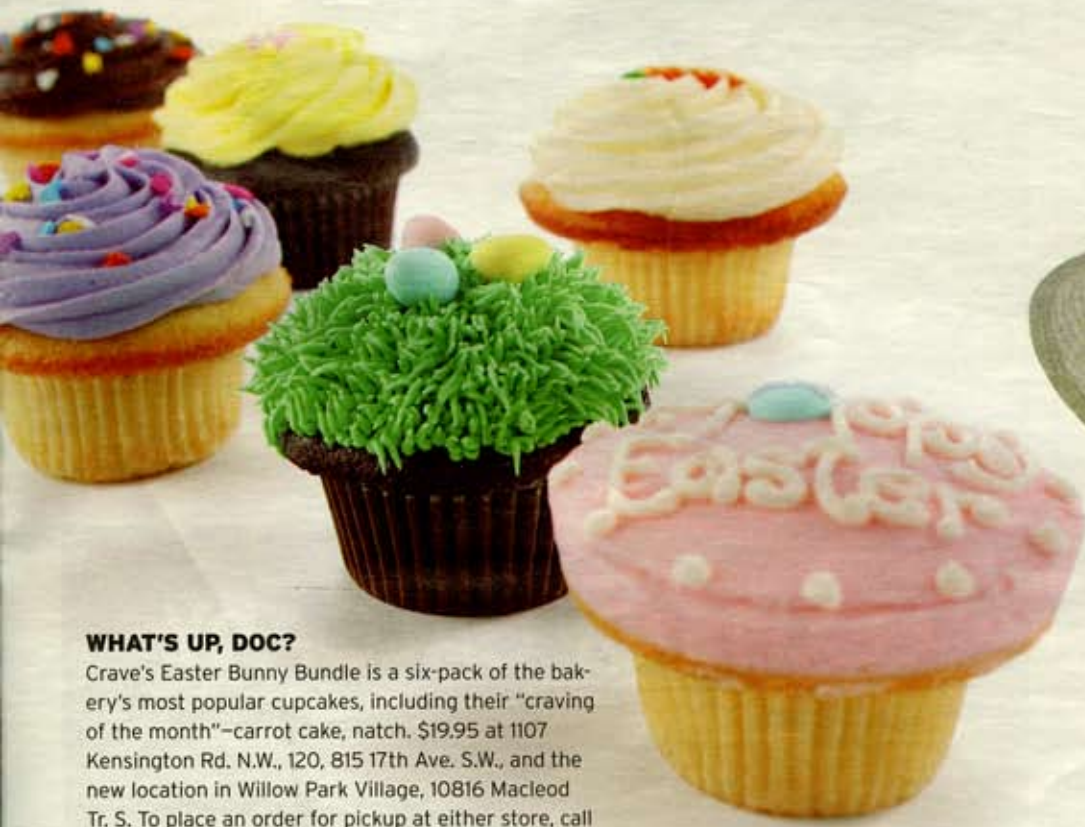

CHEERFUL CHIRPS

It's not the actual hatchlings that make Easter chicks such a tricky life-or-death proposition, but rather the hatching process itself. Eliminate the possibility of an unhappy ending with soft and fuzzy replicas. $5.95 each at Twigs & Company, Stephen Avenue Mall, 121 8th Ave. S.W., 403-263-3302, twigs.ca.

A BOX INSTEAD OF A BASKET

Not that they'd want to put the Easter Bunny out of business, but Purdy's has all your holiday egg, jelly-bean and chocolate-rabbit needs covered. The Happy Easter Tin, $17.95, eliminates challenging questions about why the Easter Bunny would want you to eat him. At Chinook Centre, 403-253-6111; Market Mall, 403-286-1122; and five other locations throughout Calgary, purdys.com.

WHAT'S UP, DOC?

Crave's Easter Bunny Bundle is a six-pack of the bakery's most popular cupcakes, including their "craving of the month"—carrot cake, natch. $19.95 at 1107 Kensington Rd. N.W., 120, 815 17th Ave. S.W., and the new location in Willow Park Village, 10816 Macleod Tr. S. To place an order for pickup at either store, call 403-270-2728 or e-mail it to info@cravecookies.com.

sa
can st (even if
with a n
parts of
in the D
hundred soignée
Montre
handm
dios,
403